5. Medallion Signature Guarantee (If applicable.)

If your bank account registration does not exactly match the registration of all of the accounts you have listed (including spellings, abbreviations and initials), all registered shareholders must have their signatures guaranteed below. You can obtain a medallion signature guarantee from a domestic bank or trust company, broker, dealer, clearing agency, savings association, or other financial institution which is participating in a medallion program recognized by the Securities Transfer Association. The three recognized medallion programs are Securities Transfer Agents Medallion Program (STAMP), Stock Exchanges Medallion Program (SEMP) and New York Stock Exchange, Inc. Medallion Signature Program (NYSE MSP). Signature guarantees from financial institutions which are not participating in one of these programs will not be accepted. It is imperative that the proper prefix and ink be used by the institution affixing the medallion signature guarantee in order to process your request.
